Another First for Wittek

NEW

Wittek Golf Supply believes in providing its customers with the latest advancements in driving range golf products. We are proud to introduce the next generation range picker basket. This new design offers ergonomic handles that are recessed to provide easy handling and transportation. The entire part is made from a specialized polymer that offers high strength and impact resistance for long lasting performance. When compared against standard wire construction this new design offers a 60% weight reduction.
